On the Spot Essay Competition

For improving the writing skills of the participating children, an on-the-spot Essay Competition was held. 20 such trainees penned their thoughts on "How I celebrated Dusshera". The toppers were suitably awarded prizes whereas the rest got consolation prizes. Our benevolent Patron, Shri Mohan Seth of Ashirwad Banquet Hall, served to all present nutritious brunch.

Praud Sanskar/Senior Citizen care

Our worthy colleagues whose birthday falls in October were felicitated as usual. As per the recent decision of the executive, Shri A.C. Saraswati, a retired scientist, who has attained the age of 80 in this month was specially honoured in traditional Indian way with shawl and garlands.

Project Eye Donation

Shri K.B. Mahajan, Editor of 'Vikas Sandesh' and State Convener (Eye Donation Project) of BVP, Delhi (South) in a forceful speech removed all misgivings and made it abundantly clear that every one - young and old, persons using spectacles or contact lens, those who have undergone cataract operation, those with high blood pressure or high blood sugar, etc. can pledge their eyes. He also showed a Certificate beautifully designed by him with the names of the donors inscribed thereon, to be put up at prominent place in the house. This would serve as a constant reminder to family members for contacting the concerned authorities about the sad demise of the donor. The Branch immediately decided to present such certificates to their eye donors also.

The Branch enlisted 17 eye donors on the spot. Certificates will be presented to them in our next meeting.

Refreshment was served by Mrs. Usha Kapoor, General Secretary of the Branch, on being blessed with the birth of grandson.

Bhagavat Geeta

Why we read the Bhagavat Geeta, even if we can't understand it?

An old farmer lived on a farm in the mountains with his young grandson. Each morning, Grandpa was up early sitting at the kitchen table reading his Bhagavat Geeta. His grandson wanted to be just like him and tried to imitate him in every way he could. One day the grandson asked, "Grandpa! I try to read the Bhagawat Geeta just like you but I don't understand it, and what I do understand, I forget as soon as I close the book. What good does reading the Bhagawat Geeta do?"

The grandfather quietly turned from putting coal in the stove and replied, "Take this coal basket down to the river and bring me back a basket of water."

The boy did as he was told, but all the water leaked out before he got back to the house. The grandfather laughed and said, "You'll have to move a little faster next time," and sent him back to the river with the basket to try again".

This time the boy ran faster, but again the basket was empty before here turned home. Out of breath, he told his grandfather that it was impossible to carry water in a basket, and he went to get a bucket instead. The old man said, "I don't want a bucket of water; I want a basket of water. You're just not trying hard enough," and he went out the door to watch the boy try again.

At this point, the boy knew it was impossible, but he wanted to show his grandfather that even if he ran as fast as he could, the water would leak out before he got back to the house. The boy again dipped the basket into river and ran hard, but when he reached his grandfather the basket was again empty. Out of breath, he said, "See..... it is useless!"

"So you think it is useless?" The old man said, "Look at the basket." The boy looked at the basket and for the first time realized that the basket was different. It had been transformed from a dirty old coal basket and was now clean, inside and out."

"Son, that's what happens when you read the Bhagavat Geeta. You might not understand or remember everything, but when you read it, you will be changed, inside and out. That is the work of GOD in our lives."

Abraham Lincoln's Letter to his Son's Teacher

Respected Teacher,

My Son will have to learn, I know

That all men are not just, all men are not true, but teach him also

That for every scoundrel, there is a Hero

That for every selfish politician, there is a dedicated leader

Teach him that for every enemy, there is a friend

It will take time, I know; but teach him if you can

That a dollar earned is of far more value than five found

Teach him to learn to lose and also enjoy winning

Steer him away from envy, if you can

Teach him the secret of quiet laughter

Let him learn early that the Bullies are easiest to Lick

Teach him if you can, the wonder of books.....

But also give Quiet time to ponder over the eternal mystery of birds in the sky, bees in the sun and flowers on a green hills - side

In school teach him it is far more honourable to fail than to cheat

Teach him to have faith in his own ideas even if everyone tells him they are wrong

Teach him to be gentle with gentle people and tough with the tough

Try to give my son the strength not to follow the crowd when everyone is getting on the Bandwagon

Teach him to listen to all men but teach him also to filter all he hears on a screen of truth and take only the good that comes through

Teach him, if you can, how to laugh when he is sad

Teach him there is no shame in tears

Teach him to scoff at cynics and to beware of too much sweetness

Teach him to sell his Brawn and Brain to the highest bidders, but never to put a price tag on his heart and soul

Teach him to close his Ears to a Howling Mob.....And to stand and Flight

If he Thinks he is right Treat him gently; but do not cuddle him because only the test of Fire Makes Fine Steel

Let him have the courage to be important

Let him have the patience to be brave

Teach him always to have sublime faith in himself because then he will always have sublime faith in mankind

This is a bid order; but see what you can do

He is such a fine little fellow, my son.
