BHARAT VIKAS PARISHAD

NATIONAL SECRETARY GENERAL REPORT: 2009-10

A. OUR VISION, MISSION & SUTRAS

Our Vision

Our vision is Swasth - Samarth - Sanskarit Bharat i.e. physically, economically and morally strong India. With this vision, Bharat Vikas Parishad was established in the birth centenary year of Swami Vivekanand in 1963 to work for development and growth of Bharat, in all fields of human endeavour - cultural, social, academic, moral, national and spiritual.

2. Our Mission

2.1 To achieve its vision, Parishad's mission is to organise the elite, intellectuals and the well-to-do citizens and to motivate them to serve our poor, disabled, illiterate and ignorant brethren not as an act of charity but in the true spirit of our cultural tradition of service as duty.

3. Our Sutras

3.1 Parishad's policies and programmes are executed through the five sutras (maxims) : Sampark (Fellowship), Sahyog (Cooperation), Sanskar (Moral Orientation), Seva (Service) and Samarpan (Commitment). Parishad believes that all these maxims are indispensable for proper grooming of our citizens and their family members towards the service of our motherland.

B. ORGANISATION & FINANCE

4. Meetings at National Level

C. PROJECTS & PROGRAMMES

I. SANSKAR (EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME)

12.1 The programmes of the Parishad aimed at providing sanskar or educational development can be categorized as under:

- (i) Children & Youth Development
- (ii) Women & Family Development
- (iii) Senior Citizens' Development

(i) Children & Youth Development

13. National Group Song Competition (N.G.S.C.)

13.1 National Group Song Competition is one of our oldest projects. Ever since the first National Group Song Competition of patriotic songs was held in 1967, such competitions have become an annual feature generating patriotic fervor. The competition has come to provide a measure of Bharat Vikas Parishad's popularity and identity among the student community, their family members and the teachers.

13.2 Students of class VIth to XIIth throughout the country are encouraged to participate in this programme at Branch level. Teams selected at Branch level compete at Prant level and those selected at Prant level finally compete at All India level. In the competition at the national level, a team from each Prant sings one patriotic song each in Hindi and a regional language and the best teams are awarded prizes.

13.3 At branch level, the participation of students during 2009-10 has been as under:

II. SEWA (SERVICE PROGRAMMES)

21. Viklang Sahayata Project (Handicapped Welfare & Rehabilitation)

21.1 Helping the handicapped persons and their rehabilitation is one of the important programmes of the Bharat Vikas Parishad for which two of our centres have won President of India Award and one FICCI Award. The programme aims to enable the handicapped persons to fully participate in social and national life of the country overcoming their disability. Beginning with the establishment of its first Viklang Centre in Delhi at 1990, there are now following 13 Viklang Sahayata Kendras in various states, which provide artificial limbs free of cost to needy persons through their centres as well as by organising camps.

21.2 These centres provide free of cost artificial limbs, calipers, hearing aids, medicines, special shoes, and tri cycles. In addition, there are mobile workshops, which manufacture artificial limbs and provide service to the Viklang Camps organised by various Branches. Some of the centres have also taken up special programme for conducting operations for the polio victims.

21.3 During the year 2009-10, number of artificial limbs provided by the Viklang Kendras and branches is indicated below:

| Total | 17,899 |

21.4 In addition, our branches rehabilitated 6,194 handicapped persons by providing them training in various vocations, securing employment or in obtaining railway passes etc. during the year.

22. Villages / Urban Slums Development

22.1 Under the Gram / Basti Yojana, each branch is encouraged to adopt either a village or a slum area for its over-all development. During 2009-10, our branches took up 117 service projects in 78 villages. The projects included health check-up camps, visit of mobile medical vans, vocational training centres, sanskar kendras and education of illiterate and neglected children. The centres also help in getting benefits of different schemes launched by the Government.

23. Integrated Development of Village through NRIs Assistance

23.1 Realising the need for integrated development of the villages, Bharat Vikas Parishad, with financial assistance from Jindal Foundation of Canada, has taken up Samagra Gram Vikas Project for all round development of villages in various parts of the country. So far 14 villages, in as many states, are being funded by Jindal Foundation.

23.2 Till the year 2008-09, work was being carried out in the following villages: (1) Khajjjar (H.P.), (2) Dunera (Punjab), (3) Sunder Nagar (U.P.), (4) Ekhaspur (A.P.), (5) Mohabbatpur (Haryana), (6) Lohat Baddi (Punjab), (7) Ilsoba (West Bengal), (8) Kaliwas (Rajasthan) (9) Dunge (Maharashtra) and (10) Kumbarakoppalu (Karnataka).

23.3 During 2009-10, work continued in four of the above villages viz Lohat Baddi (Punjab), Kumbarkoppallu, (Karnataka), Kaliwas (Rajasthan) and Ilsoba (West Bengal). As a result, the envisaged village development targets in all the ten villages have now been substantially achieved. During the year, work was also taken up in the following three additional villages:

1. Barnarikala (Assam)
2. Rampur Gadwal (J&K)
3. Banger (M.P.)

The work in the above villages is in initial stages of implementation.

23.4 As in the past, Dr. Shiv Jindal and Smt. Sarita Jindal made their annual visit to India during October-November, 2009 to apprise themselves of the progress of work in all the villages funded by Jindal Foundation.

24. Vanvasi Sahayata Project (Tribal Development)

24.1 Since 1992, Bharat Vikas Parishad has been taking up programmes for the welfare and uplift of the Vanvasis of the country in general and North Eastern states in particular. Presently, Parishad has adopted following projects in the North Eastern states:

34. Seminars

34.1 Bharat Vikas Parishad holds seminars on contemporary subjects of national interest and welfare of humanity in institutions of higher education to reinforce Bhartiya Sanskriti and Sanskars among the youth. Reports from the branches indicate that during the year, 146 branches organised 168 seminars in which 29,292 persons participated.

34.2 Subjects discussed in the seminars included India's space programme, citizens in democratic nation, divorce: reasons and solutions, Bhartiya sanskriti and dharma, Indian philosophy, vedic culture and rituals, electoral system of India, Vision India: 2020.

35. Publications and Website

35.1 Literature on Bharat Vikas Parishad, its projects and activities is being continuously revised and updated. A number of new publications were also brought out during the year. A complete list of publications is at Annexure-5.

35.2 Bharat Vikas Parishad is regularly bringing out its bilingual monthly journal "NITI" in Hindi and English (circulation: 44,000 copies) on Parishad's activities and half-yearly magazine “Gyan Prabha” containing thought provoking articles.

35.3 Parishad's website (www.bvpindia.com) now occupies an important role in spreading the Parishad's message and disseminating information about its activities. During the year it continued to add newer features and content. It is now a source of all the information that one needs to know about Bharat Vikas Parishad. Parishad is also now on the Facebook.

36. Utkrishtata Samman Award in the memory of Parishad's Founder Secretary General Dr. Suraj Prakash

36.1 Utkrishtata Samman (Excellency Award) has been instituted to perpetuate the memory of Parishad's Founder Secretary General Dr. Suraj Prakash and to propagate the ideals put forth by him. It is awarded to a person or institution for doing outstanding work in any field. Nominations received from all over the country are considered by a Selection Committee.

36.2 So far three awards have been presented. In the first two years awards have gone in the fields of Sanskar and Sewa. During the third year of the Award, nominations were invited for award in the field of “Environment”. A total of 40 nominations were received. The Committee, under the chairmanship of Shri Jagmohan, selected Dr. Vallabhbhai R. Kathiria, Rajkot, Gujarat for this honour.

37. I take this opportunity to thank all my colleagues at the grass root, state, zonal and central levels for their cooperation in strengthening the Bharat Vikas Parishad in service of the Nation. In all humility, I present this report to the worthy members of the National Council for approval.
