FROM THE NATIONAL SECRETARY GENERAL

AN OVERVIEW

As we march towards our Golden Jubilee year, we review here the progress during the 49th year of foundation of the Bharat Vikas Parishad. It is my privilege to present the Annual Report of Bharat Vikas Parishad for the year 2011-12.

We had a successful year of service to the Nation through our work. The main highlights of the work during year were as under:

- Meetings of the national bodies and workshops in respect of various faculties were organised during the year. For the first time a workshop for Mahila Karya Kartas was also organized.
- All India level programmes of our projects – NGSC, NSGSC, BKJ, etc. - were successfully held.
- Branches and Prants continued to organize various sanskar, sewa and sampark projects through out the country.
- During the year, number of Branches and Membership (families) rose by around 5% to 1,147 and 50,127 respectively.
- Number of Vikas Ratna rose to 99 and Vikas Mitra to 3,226.
- For the first time a scheme to release funds from the Central Corpus was launched - 11 projects in the Prants were assisted in the first year.
- Work in 6 villages, taken up for their integrated development, was completed – taking the total villages so far developed to 16 in various states of India.
- Two Viklang Sahayata Kendra at Lucknow and Gwalior were formally inaugurated.
- Our permanent projects rose to 1,457 and these continued to serve greater number of citizens needing help and support. For example, the number of patients annually benefited by our Chandigarh Diagnostic Centre rose to 2.10 lakhs and by our Kota Hospital (with super specialty facilities) to 1.20 lakhs.
- Deendayal Shodh Sansthan, New Delhi was presented with Bharat Vikas Parishad's Utkrishtata Samman for their excellent work in the field of Village Development.
- In addition to publication of revised / updated editions of the existing literature, some new books were also brought out i.e. biographies of Swami Vivekanand and Dr. Suraj Prakash in English and Hindi.

- Parishad charted out its programme for celebration of its Golden Jubilee and 150th Birth Anniversary of Swami Vivekanand. A life size statue of Swami Vivekanand was unveiled in Parishad's Central Office at Delhi in January, 2012 signaling the beginning of yearlong celebrations of 150th birth anniversary of Swami Vivekanand.

I take this opportunity to thank all colleagues who tirelessly worked at the branch, state, zone and central levels for their cooperation in strengthening the organization in service of the Nation.

Our Vision, Mission and Sutras

Our Vision

Our Vision is the development and growth of Bharat, in all fields of human endeavour - cultural, social, academic, moral, national and spiritual - culminating in Swasth- Samarth-Sanskrit Bharat i.e. physically, economically and morally strong India.

Our Mission

Our Mission, we have the task to organise the elite, intellectuals and the well-to-do citizens and to motivate them to serve our poor, disabled, illiterate and ignorant brethren not as an act of charity but in the true spirit of our cultural tradition of service as duty.

Our Sutras

Our policies and programmes are implemented through the five sutras (maxims) of Sampark (Fellowship), Sahyog (Cooperation), Sanskrit (Moral Orientation), Sewa (Service) and Samarpan (Commitment). All these maxims are indispensable for proper grooming of our citizens and their family members towards the service of our motherland.
